ABOUT US

KAAVIYAM
MAKE YOUR EVENTS EPIC

Kaaviyam is more than just a company, it is a dream that began with a single click.

Back in 2020, I was just a school student with a camera and a passion to turn moments into memories. What started as a small solo venture soon grew into EVA Event Management & Photography, and today, it stands tall as Kaaviyam, a name built on creativity, hard work and heart.

We have shaped Kaaviyam into a space where ideas, stories, and dreams come alive from weddings and concerts to commercials and production shoots.

Our motto, “Make Your Events Epic” isn’t just a line, it is what drives us every day.

ABOUT ME ✨

Hi! I'm Sankrushi
the founder and manager of Kaaviyam.

For me, a camera has never been just a tool, it's a storyteller. I started photography as a kid, chasing light and emotions, not realizing it would one day shape my identity. What began as a simple passion slowly turned into a journey that taught me who I am and what I want to create.

I'm currently pursuing Engineering and Journalism, a mix that perfectly blends my love for logic and creativity. I have always been fascinated by how technology and art can come together to tell stories that move people.

Along the way, I have had the chance to serve as an Executive Board Member for International Press - Photojournalism and to mentor students across 40+ Model United Nations conferences in South India. My works have been featured in exhibitions, and in 2024, I was honored with the Best Student Award by The Institution of Engineers (India), a milestone that motivates me to keep pushing forward.

Leadership, for me, has been a journey of learning: building a team, managing projects and keeping creativity alive through every challenge. I take pride in seeing Kaaviyam grow into a space where young creators can dream freely, learn passionately, and turn ideas into art.

Kaaviyam isn't just my business, it's my story, my purpose and my way of making every moment truly epic.

THE FORCE BEHIND KAAVIYAM

Mrs. Shenbagakasi M

If Kaaviyam has a heart, it is my mom Mrs. Shenbagakasi M.

She is an M.Phil. graduate in Journalism, a former Radio Jockey, and someone who understands the beauty of words, sound, and storytelling. She has always been my biggest support, the calm in the chaos, the strength behind every decision.

As the Proprietor of Kaaviyam, she manages the company's legal and operational side while guiding me with wisdom, patience and creativity. Her experience in Tamil literature and media adds depth to everything we create.

Together, we have built Kaaviyam not just as a company but as a story of passion, perseverance and purpose. Because at Kaaviyam, every moment deserves to be epic.

At Kaaviyam, we also focus on capturing real stories, covering social issues, everyday lives and photo walks that reflect the world around us. This passion for meaningful storytelling is what I also strive to instill in the students I mentor through Model United Nations, helping them use creativity as a voice for change.

Beyond events, Kaaviyam is about stories that matter the unseen, the everyday, the voices that deserve to be heard. From social issues to street photo walks, I love capturing the beauty in reality and inspiring my MUN students to do the same - to see, feel, and create with purpose.
